AZIZA Dream Camp

Technique intensive with Aziza

For years I have had the dream of creating a fantasy dance camp. Imagine bringing together like minded students to immerse ourselves in learning, sharing, and dancing together in an organic environment. Now it is finally coming true! June 2011 will be the second Aziza Dreamcamp. Join me, Aziza for 5 days of intensive instruction, bonfires, drumming, zilling, laughing, sweating, and celebrating. You will sleep comfortably in fully equipped cabins deep in the forest. Hike in the woods; plunge into a cool lake, share delicious meals, and make new dance friends. This second Dreamcamp will focus on getting back to the fundamentals of the dance with basic foundation technique. We will work on posture and bodyline, stage presence, fluidity, isolations, and combinations. We will also delve into the arena of finger cymbals. Bring your zills on a guided hike through the woods, practicing basic patterns as we walk. During the week we will concentrate on a single Oriental choreography, to better understand and explore the nuances of the music and the movement, and go much deeper than in a one-time workshop. Also included are activities like crafts, games, special invited guests, video night, bonfires, and free time to round out a full experience. Does this sound like your fantasy, too? Then please come and join me...

Aziza Dreamcamp with Aziza begins Sunday, August 28th at 4 p.m.

We conclude Saturday September 3rd at 9 a.m. 2012

Enrolment is limited to only 14 participants.
